The News

With the presidential election later this year, it is time for a summary of what has preceded it. Trying to detail all of the controversies during Joe Biden's tenor would take longer then it took to code all of this.

The most controversial and most discussed was probably the gas/inflation alongside giving 50 billion dollars to Ukraine.

For Trump, you could argue anything he has done politically in the last 8 years, but the anti-LGB rights is complained about regularly.
